

THE NEW YORK STORE

Est. 1853. INDIANA'S GREATEST STORE

Advance Spring Millinery

We've just received some beautiful advance styles of trimmed hats that we want you to see. They are all black hats made of horsehair braid and chiffon, newest shapes, stylishly trimmed with ribbon and silk flowers. Hats that are advance in style, but may be worn now, choice—

$3.95 —Second Floor.

PETTIS DRY GOODS COMPANY

King Quality Hats...

Are All that the Name Implies

Monarchs

Over All Other Makes

Price, $3.00

Paul H. Krauss

44 E. Washington St.
Haber-dasher :: :: Hatter
Shirtmaker

GOOD JUDGMENT

In the Handling of Money
Determines Its Earning Power

It is better to place your savings in a sound banking institution, where they earn a fair rate of interest, than to invest them in schemes where they may earn a large per cent. now and perhaps nothing later.

SURE INCOME AND SAFETY OF PRINCIPAL ARE THE TWO VITAL POINTS.

THE Indiana Trust Company

Will Pay you 3 Per Cent. Interest on Savings.

CAPITAL, $1,000,000

OFFICES: Indiana Trust Building.

News of the Theaters and the theatrical world, with stories of the players and plays, impartial criticisms, make an excellent feature in the Indianapolis.

Sunday Journal

With this is included news of the musicians and their doings.

ARE YOU A READER?

In Indianapolis and suburbs: Daily and Sunday, 50c a month or 10c a week; daily only, 5c a month or 1c a week; Sunday only, 5c a week; elsewhere, daily, 10c a week; Sunday, 5c extra.

EIGHT PAGES IN COLORS EVERY SUNDAY.

V. H. LOCKWOOD,
Patent and Trade-Mark Lawyer
415, 418 Lemcke Building, Indianapolis, Ind.

LENTEN SERVICE HELD AT GRACE CATHEDRAL

First of a Series of Meetings Is Addressed by Bishop Francis.

The first union service of the Episcopal Church in the city to be held during Lent was held at Grace Cathedral last evening. The address was made by Bishop J. M. Francis, bishop of this diocese. His topic was "The Kingdom of God." All of the rectors of the Episcopal Churches of the city were present.

Red Men Form Lodge.
Drill teams from Wewoka Tribe No. 335 and Tishomingo Tribe No. 310, O. R. M., to the number of about forty, went last night to Oakland, where they instituted a tribe of Red Men, with a charter list of forty.

The adoption degree and the chiefs' degree were conferred by Tish-omino team and the intervening degrees—the hunters' and warriors' degrees—were conferred by the Wewoka team.

Personal Social News

Mrs. E. C. Duncan will go to New York Saturday to spend two weeks.

Mrs. William Lane Elder will go to Hot Springs, Ark., to spend two weeks.

The Review Circle will give a luncheon to-day at the Columbia Club at 1 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Vinson will entertain to-morrow evening with a small dinner party.

Mrs. Irvin, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mrs. S. E. Faber at the Presley for a few weeks.

Miss Anna Bowman will leave the first of March for Pasadena, Cal., to spend six weeks.

Mrs. Frances Brownell will go to St. Louis the first of next week to visit friends for two weeks.

Mrs. C. L. Ritter and Miss Harriet Ritter will not observe their afternoon at home to-day.

Mrs. Kate Vinneberg and Mrs. Mary Yohn have gone to St. Augustine, Fla., to spend several weeks.

Dr. and Mrs. Sexton, of Shelbyville, spent a few days this week with Mr. and Mrs. Gerritt Archibald.

Miss Blanche Harrison, of Minneapolis, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Horner, for several weeks.

Miss Florence Kottler, who has been visiting friends in Chicago for several weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. Van Camp, who has been visiting Mrs. Hall in Dayton, O., for several days, has returned home.

Mrs. Thaddeus Huston entertained her card club yesterday afternoon at her apartment in the Waldorf.

Mrs. Schultz, of Logansport, came yesterday to visit her sister, Mrs. John W. Kern, for a few days.

Admiral George Brown, who has been spending a few days in Martinsville, returned home yesterday.

Mrs. Marie Hahn, of Chicago, will come Saturday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Warren Hanna for a short time.

The Luncheon Club will be entertained by Mrs. Charles Dryden Saturday at her home on Central avenue.

Miss Julia Kern has gone to Lafayette to visit Miss Miriam Smith for a few days and to attend several parties.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murphy will return the first of next week from a six week visit in the West.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eitel, who have been visiting friends in New York for ten days, have returned home.

Mrs. F. E. Camesell, of Connorsville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Robbins, on North street.

Mrs. and Mrs. Henry Talbot and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Dickson left yesterday morning for a trip to Mexico.

Mrs. Powers, of Avondale, Cincinnati, is visiting Mrs. Louis Levey for a few days at her home on North Meridian street.

Miss Rena Tucker will entertain a few friends informally Saturday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Lehmcke, of St. Paul.

Mrs. Hugo Nathan, of Cincinnati, who has been spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kaub, has returned to her home.

Miss Lucy Simonton, of Lebanon, O., who has been spending a few weeks with Miss Edna Stevenson, will return to her home to-morrow.

Miss Peck, of Scranton, Pa., who has been visiting Mrs. Charles Layman, will return to her home the latter part of the week.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

Mrs. August Keifer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Mayer, have gone to Colorado Springs to spend a few weeks with Mrs. George B. Mayer.

Miss Sallie Hirt, of Bloomfield, Ind., who has been the guest of Miss Bertha Short for a few weeks, left last evening.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

Mrs. August Keifer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Mayer, have gone to Colorado Springs to spend a few weeks with Mrs. George B. Mayer.

Miss Sallie Hirt, of Bloomfield, Ind., who has been the guest of Miss Bertha Short for a few weeks, left last evening.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

Mrs. August Keifer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Mayer, have gone to Colorado Springs to spend a few weeks with Mrs. George B. Mayer.

Miss Sallie Hirt, of Bloomfield, Ind., who has been the guest of Miss Bertha Short for a few weeks, left last evening.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

Mrs. August Keifer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Mayer, have gone to Colorado Springs to spend a few weeks with Mrs. George B. Mayer.

Miss Sallie Hirt, of Bloomfield, Ind., who has been the guest of Miss Bertha Short for a few weeks, left last evening.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

Mrs. August Keifer and daughter, Mrs. Charles Mayer, have gone to Colorado Springs to spend a few weeks with Mrs. George B. Mayer.

Miss Sallie Hirt, of Bloomfield, Ind., who has been the guest of Miss Bertha Short for a few weeks, left last evening.

Mrs. Theobald, of Springfield, O., will return to her home Saturday after a visit with her sister, Mrs. Charles Layman, at the Cambridge.

Mrs. Leonard Hackney, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Oliver P. Hazard, in Louisville, Ky., for a few days, will return home Saturday.

Miss Miriam Smith, of Lafayette, will come the first of the week to visit Miss Charlotte Scott and attend the leap year party.

for Louisville, Ky., to visit friends before returning home.

Mr. W. E. Hayward and daughter, Miss Hayward, have gone to Pana, Ill., to attend the funeral of Mr. George Hayward Scott, of New York city.

Miss Jessie Gardner, of Walnut Hills, Cincinnati, who has been spending a short time with Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Gardner, will return to her home to-morrow.

Mrs. Jean Harrison and nephew, Irvin Nichols, of Cincinnati, who have been spending a few days with Miss Elizabeth Claypool, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Harry Doris Harting entertained the members of a card club yesterday with an informal luncheon at her apartments in the St. Clair flats. The table decorations were of pink, with pink sweet peas and pink azaleas. After the luncheon the guests played cards. Mrs. Harting was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. A. Fry, of Chicago.

The Opera Club gave an enjoyable dance last evening at the Germania House. The committee in charge of the dance was Mr. Walter Judd, Mr. Ralph Goodwood, Mr. William Stewart, Mr. Charles Bates, Mr. Robert Allen, Mr. John Quill, Mr. Judah, Mr. James Yunker, Mr. Otto Mauer, Mr. Charles Stinson, Mr. Thomas Horaday, Mr. Oscar Bozart, Mr. Frederick Albert, Mr. Carl Pien, Mr. Lawrence Day, Mr. James Calk, Mr. Lawrence Gwynn Patterson, Mr. Arthur Compton, Mr. Thomas Thelms, Dr. Moyer, and Dr. Judson Moschelle.

The marriage of Miss Anne Hurty, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John N. Hurty, and Mr. Almus Eugene Vinton, son of Mr. Merick Vinton, of New York, formerly of this city, took place yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents on East Eleventh street. The relatives and a few intimate friends were present for the ceremony, which was officiated by Rev. James D. Stanley, of Christ Church. The rooms were decorated with Southern amilies and white flowers. The bride wore a gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

The ribbons were carried by Miss Adele Adams, of this city, and the bridesmaids by Miss Helen Perry, of Lowell, Mass., was the maid of honor, and Miss Helen Perry, of Lowell, Mass., was the maid of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left later in the afternoon for a wedding journey, and on their return will be at home, after April 15, at the Victoria. Among the guests from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Stallo Vinton, of New York, brother of the bridegroom. The bride wore a beautiful gown of white satin with a veil and skirt decorated with maiden-hair ferns and pink roses. The ceremony was beautiful with a canopy of white flowers and a canopy of roses, and either side the mass of green were set cathedral candlesticks with tall candles. The bride and groom were seated in a room draped with smilax, and in the center of the room a large basket filled with white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. V